

FAMILY HISTORY & CURRENT HEALTH

Some medical conditions are inherited and many can be tested for. Your current health status (weight, blood pressure etc) is also important to conception, so consultation with your doctor and/or midwife is recommended.

Booking for Delivery

At the Countess of Chester Hospital

If you are planning to have your baby at the Countess of Chester Hospital, the Midwife will need to see you for a booking appointment as soon as possible following confirmation of pregnancy. This can be arranged at reception. If no appointments are available, a home visit may be arranged. Please leave a contact telephone number with the receptionist so that the Midwife can call you to confirm a date and time. A dating scan appointment will be sent in the post. Please collect a booking pack from Reception: complete the white booking form and read the screening booklet prior to your appointment.

Private nuchal scans cost £200: telephone to arrange. Please note that these can only be completed from 11 weeks 3 days to 13 weeks 6 days gestation.

Booking for Delivery

At the Wrexham Maelor Hospital

If you are planning to have your baby at the Wrexham Maelor Hospital, your booking appointment will be at the hospital. An appointment will be sent to you in the post along with a dating scan appointment. Following the anatomy scan at 20 to 22 weeks, the Midwife will take over your care here at Laurel Bank Surgery.

Nuchal scans at Wrexham Maelor can be arranged via Mr Taylor's secretary on 01978 725665, the cost is £125 + £97 for the blood tests nb: this is free for anyone over 40 years of age.
